

3-3-1885

Letter from Anne Whitney, to Sarah Whitney, 1885 March 3

Anne Whitney

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Whitney, Anne and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Anne Whitney, to Sarah Whitney, 1885 March 3" (1885). Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence. 413.
https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence/413

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

a letter from Mrs. Burdett Wey - says the snow is in mountain ranges along the coast. She has great contact with the women of the Journal who form the busy meeting.

[AW to SWW, March 3, 1875]

(6)

J. C. Phillips
2. 1875

3. wry.

The word from Mrs. Chapman continues favorable - says she is slowly coming back to her ordinary condition. Mr. A & I. went out to Camb. this P.M. to make a party call upon Miss Anneses & her mother ^{the mother} who told us she was of the Lombard family & had always known of us before she knew of me in a public capacity. The younger dame was not at home.

I suppose you saw the death of J. C. Phillips - The 2 men of that Corn. (Garrison) of 5 whom I knew & who frequently came several times to see me - whom on the whole I liked in spite of their tergiversations & who were in fact friends & we - are both dead - They the youngest of the lat. Phillips was very gentle & amiable - & only became demoralized by being put upon an Anti-Committee & thing that in the ~~Constitution~~ mind has no relations with anything else on earth or in the heavens & so is not subject to the same code of moral law with other things & affairs.

We take an occasional exercise in Mrs. Wells' book. which has a great deal of good sense but is traversed over & over with very curious specimens of the President's American. If I do not get out some P.M. this week - & this is not likely as my P.M. brings some unavoidable duty - I shall be with you Sunday.
Love your loving sister will have to mother